

I listen to KLOVE, 88.9, in OKC everyday. It is a wonderful and uplifting radio ministry and serves the local community. Many people would be disappointed if this station was displaced by another. I and many other listeners would not be able to hear of God's love and help others. It has saved my life!